LR 349

Carsten (read title). 349, Mr. President, by Senator Higgins (read title). That is all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Again, ladies and gentlemen, let me thank you for a good day's work. You really were in there well. We bogged down a little bit in the middle of the day but came out okay. We have a hard day again tomorrow and urge you to work again. Tomorrow evening (GAVEL), tomorrow evening (GAVEL) plan to stay late. It may be the last day this week we work all that late but we will face Friday when we get there but do plan to stay late tomorrow night. We will try to make a better, shorter day of it Friday. Again, thank you. Senator Lundy, do you want to say the chores until nine o'clock tomorrow.

SENATOR LUNDY: Mr. President, I move that we adjourn this body until 9:00 a.m., tomorrow, March 29.

SPEAKER NICHOL: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned.
